

As a paid subscriber to XM radio, I feel I have the constitutional right to get weather and traffic information. I feel the freedom of speech is being infringed upon when the burecrats can dictate what a broadcaster with paid subscribers can broadcast. We are heading more and more to a police state!